OTHER ADVANTAGES

High retention
Agile For All trainers use accelerated learning techniques like Training From The Back Of The Room to present course material in brain-friendly ways that help maximize learning and retention.

No boredom
Rather than death by PowerPoint and long lectures, Agile For All courses are designed to be highly interactive.

Fun
Every part of this course is designed to keep you engaged and having fun while learning the material.

Whys before hows
Beyond the basic Scrum framework, you'll learn the underlying principles and values that drive success before getting into successful practices, allowing you to understand the practices at a much deeper level.

Learn by doing
Multiple creative exercises and simulations give you the opportunity to practice core skills necessary to be a successful Certified Scrum Product Owner® — like requirements gathering, backlog grooming, prioritization and dealing with stakeholders.
